ATTEND WEDDING OF MISS OVERSTREET AT LAKELAND

Mr. and Mrs. Claybourne D. Dyal and little son, Claybourne, Jr., and Mrs. Dyal's mother and guest, Mrs. Daniel McConchy of Coudersport, Pa., returned today from Eustis where they went of Friday to attend the marriage ceremony of W. B. Sewell and Miss Ethel Overstreet.

The bridegroom is the cashier of the First National bank in Lakeland. Before coming to Florida he worked with Mr. Dyal in the bank in Lodi, N. J., since which time they have been close friends. Mrs. Sewell is known to many Daytona people as she frequently visited her as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Daniels. Mr. Daniels was formerly cashier in the First National bank of Daytona.

The wedding ceremony took place at the home of the bride in Eustis at 11:30 a. m. Friday. It was a very pretty event and master Claybourne Dyal acted as one of the pages and acquitted himself beautifully in the part.

Affairs of the Moment in the Triple Cities

Mrs. Crane Entertains

Mrs. George Crane was the charming hostess to the younger society set last evening, complimenting Miss Mary Louise Crane, who will leave next Thursday for St. Paul. Bridge was played till a late hour when a dainty salad course was served by the hostess. The game favors went to Mrs. George Atkins, Mrs. C. H. Edmondson, Mrs. Albusus Hankins and Mrs. William Gardner. Mrs. Crane's guests included: Mrs. David Sholtz, Mrs. George Marks, Mrs. C. H. Edmondson, Mrs. Albusus Hankins, Mrs. Geo. Atkins, Mrs. William Gardner, Mrs. Harold Zimmerman, Mrs. Peckin, Mrs. Watt, Mrs. Leon Rowe, Mrs. Welling Shaw and the Misses Dora Williams, Antoinette Peliz, Edna Wallace, Harriet and Mary Louise Crane.

Mrs. Monroe Elected President of the Peninsula Club

The annual meeting of the Peninsula club of Daytona Beach was held at the clubhouse March 24th. The President Mrs. Ransstead, presided. Mrs. W. B. Reed was hostess. The meeting opened with the singing of "America" after which Miss Rooney furnished a short enjoyable program consisting of several songs by 13 of her pupils and recitations by three little girls, after which Mr. Keith Vining played a saxophone solo, a selection from Stabat Mater, and responded to an encore with an Easter Carol. New officers were then elected as follows: President, Mrs. Maurice Monroe; vice president, Mrs. Evelyn recording secretary, Miss Edith Newell; secretary, Mrs. T. W. Beach. As plans are under way for a more commodious building, any woman regularly residing in the Triple Cities and willing to conform to the constitution and by-laws of the club will be very welcome as a member.

The members now expect to occupy their new clubhouse on Peninsula Drive, first south of the Union Memorial Library in the early fall.

Everybody should hear the Easter sermon at the First Baptist church, "The Two Resurrections in Which All Men Are Concerned." 734-3-26-11.

Dr. S. E. Eastman, of Elmira, N. Y., will preach an Easter sermon tomorrow in the Holy Hill Union church at 3:30 p. m., the subject of the sermon being, "The Blessings of Death."

LATEST NEWS OFF THE TICKER FROM NEW YORK MARKET

(Dow Jones Service.)

Washington has rejected the Soviet trade proposals, pending guarantees as to safety of lines in Russia.

The German offer to pay France in labor is gaining support.

Dana report 369 failures in the United States this week against 277 last week and 195 last year.

The wholesale dry goods districts reports the past week more cheerful in many respects than they have been in two months due to the large increase in sales of gray cloth.

Thomson & McKinnon's stock letter today says: "The news is better. The outlook in Germany is better. The answer of our secretary of state to the Russians is a step nearer to the resumption of trade. Official assurance is required of a change in their system, which will probably soon come for the press publish reports from various sections of improved business and resumption of operations in factories. With no turn for the worst in European affairs, we should proceed with our recovery. The stock market today will probably reflect the absence of many traders. Should we get further reaction would buy."

Men at Head of Auditorium Discuss Plans for Greater Improvement of Property

An important conference was held Friday at the Auditorium between men of wealth and influence who were responsible for this great educational institution and who are much interested in its maintenance and success.
Those present were S. J. Peabody, who up to date has been its greatest benefactor; George F. Johnson of the Endicott-Johnson Shoe company of New York, who was one of the Auditorium incorporators and who recently donated the new double moving picture machine; his brother, Fred Johnson, of the same firm, and J. N. Gamble of the Proctor & Gamble company of Cincinnati.

Mr. Peabody called this meeting for the purpose of taking up with these men the most important of his associates in this great progressive enterprise, the matter of future improvements. He wanted them to look over the building and grounds so that when later it might be thought advisable to make some further improvements, they would readily and fully understand all about what was needed, when it became necessary for him to notify them by letter or to further advise them, regarding any action that may be taken before their return next winter.

One important improvement which Mr. Peabody called the attention of these gentlemen to is the proposal to lay a cement sidewalk along the west side of the Auditorium similar to the one on the east side. This will make it still more convenient for patrons to get in and out of the building on the west side and at the same time make it so they can avoid wading in the sand. It is also Mr. Peabody's idea to fill up with cement all of the vacant ground lying between the walks leading from the Duke street sidewalk to the main entrances of the building. Whether the building will be freshly painted during the approaching summer was another subject considered.

Messrs. Gamble and the Johnsons expressed themselves as well pleased with the Auditorium management thus far and are apparently ready to do their part to see the enterprise made a complete success to the point of being maintained as a high class educational asset for the public benefit.

Interested in Suggestions Made
With reference to the suggestions that have been made through the News, as to how the people would like to see the grounds surrounding the Auditorium beautified, Mr. Peabody, the owner, said:

"Yes, I have been much interested in what the people have said. It was just what I wanted and I am glad they have spoken so freely. I must say I agree with them. There have been many good ideas expressed and I hope their fondest wishes may be realized. However, I am now anxious to know what they have to suggest as to the ways and means of accomplishing what they would like to see done. I have given the matter considerable thought and I am of the opinion it will cost close to ten thousand dollars to put that property in the shape it should be put in and to make it look as the people have said they want it. It will have to be filled in with good rich dirt and then to supply and grow the shrubs, trees, flowers and grass necessary to make a beautiful park of it will prove something of a task and I will now be interested in having all real friends of the community to offer such suggestions as they may regarding the best plan of securing the necessary funds to proceed with the desired improvements. Doubtless an interchange of thoughts can do no harm but great good and great things are often accomplished by a unity of feeling and effort. Personally I shall certainly welcome the ideas of every person interested in the future beauty, prosperity and welfare of the peninsula cities."

Should Widen Wild Olive
"There are two other matters I am interested in," continued Mr. Peabody. "At the time the Auditorium was built the Daytona Beach council agreed to widen Wild Olive street five feet on each side, between Main street and Duke street, but this has never been done. I am disappointed about this neglect, as this is an improvement that is necessary. This street is so narrow that it is almost impossible for cars to turn around on it. Then there is one other thing I would very much like to see, the pavement of the full width of Duke street, between Wild Olive street and Grandview avenue. This should be done so that there will be a solid cement front for the Auditorium approach. Another thing that would be around there without being obliged to drive in the sand at all. This would work in just right with the improvement we are contemplating in filling with cement all the space between the building and sidewalk not already covered by walks. While this latter improvement has never been promised, I hope it will be given favorable consideration by both the Seabreeze and Daytona Beach councils. It will take their joint action to bring it about."

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Copeland of Piquette, Mich. and Mr. and Mrs. John Sutherland of Oxford, Mich., who have been spending a delightful winter here, are making an automobile trip to Palm Beach and Miami.

EXCELLENT PROGRAM WILL BE GIVEN THIS EVENING

Saturday evening at the Auditorium the program of the Million Dollar Band will be as follows:

LAST ASSEMBLY NUMBER OF THE SEASON TUESDAY

On Monday evening, March 28, will be seen the last regular Florida Assembly entertainment at the Auditorium. It will be the occasion of several theater parties to close the season and there will be many exchanges of good will between the patrons. This will probably be the last appearance of Director James Heaton, as he, with his estimable family, leave for their Northern home on Wednesday, March 30.

On this auspicious evening will be shown the famous moving picture, "Blind Youth."
If ever someone accuses you in a hotel lobby, don't jump at conclusions and assume that it's the house detective or a confidence man. It may be just a movie scout hunting for the proper background for a great picture "pulsating with life."

The playhouse art progresses more rapidly every day. It has reached the point where the Belasco touch absolutely is demanded, and every effort is made to make scenes true to life. There are some directors who earnestly try to get the real, honest-to-goodness article in preference to a passable makeshift.

Take, for instance, the case of Director Ted Soman in the National Picture, "Blind Youth." The picture called for a gay, colorful masquerade party in a studio of the Latin quarter of Paris. Mr. Soman could just as well have taken a lot of Hoosiers and native Californians and "Frenchified" them for the occasion.

But, no! Mr. Soman heard there was a party of French officers visiting Los Angeles on some sort of government mission. Nothing would satisfy him but that these officers should participate in the studio scene. So a diplomatic emissary met the French officers in their hotel one fine afternoon and broached the proposition to them. They were delighted. At the masquerade they enjoyed themselves fully as much as if they were back in that dear France.

So when you go to see "Blind Youth," which, by the way, was written by Lou Tellegen and Willard Mack, look for that buoyant Parisian touch in the masquerade scene.

Season goodby parties will be given by Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Olds, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Holmes and others.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Wells Are Guests for Brief Visit

Mr. and Mrs. J. Ogden Wells, of St. Joseph, Mich., are guests at the Hotel Clarendon over the week end, having arrived Friday from a short visit in Miami. Mr. and Mrs. Wells have many friends in Daytona who are well coming them during their brief stay here. Mrs. Wells and her delightful children spent the winter two seasons ago at the Miss Evelyn Clark home on South Palmview avenue, this being the first trip Mr. and Mrs. Wells have made here since that time.

Mr. Wells is president of the Cooper, Wells & Co. hosiery mills at St. Joseph, and interested in a large number of other companies in the north.

Mr. Wells' father and mother, the late Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Wells, built the residence at the northwest corner of Palmetto and Magnolia avenue, some twenty-five years ago, and spent many winters here in former years.

Complaint was made to the mayor and council yesterday, charging Councilman D. J. Tracy with starting to build his new apartment house in Marshall Park out of line with his neighbor's buildings. An investigation failed to convince the members that the building permit law was being violated.

CHARLIE HIGH APPEARS AND SETTLES TROUBLES

Charles N. High must contribute $20 each month to the maintenance of his wife, Elizabeth High.
Deputy Sheriff W. D. Young yesterday took High before Justice R. L. Selden to answer a charge for desertion, made by his wife, after bringing him back from Jacksonville. This is the same High, Marshall Young once before went after to Jacksonville for the larceny of $100 from W. J. Shepherd, the butcher, by whom he was employed. This matter was settled by High's mother.

High was accompanied from Jacksonville by his father, S. S. High, who claims his son is addicted to some drug and is not able to work much of the time.
After hearing the evidence Justice Selden ordered the defendant to pay his wife $20 each month, which he agreed to do. If he fails the court said he would send for him and send him to jail. If he continues to settle the sentence will remain suspended. It proved to be a very sad case, as the wife is also sick and destitute and he is not in much better shape. The wife agreed Charlie would be no good to her in jail and was willing for him to have his freedom. With his father he has returned to Jacksonville.

THE BREAKERS

At The Breakers are registered:
Mrs. A. N. Benjamin and daughter, Orlando, Fla.;
Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Sneed, Madison, Ohio; A. N. Sawyer, New York; John C. Gentry, Ashtabula, Ohio; Oris Grossenbacher, Cleveland, Ohio; Wm. Cook, Jacksonville; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Benton, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Goodnow, Keene, N. H.; Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Morse, Noonsocket, R. I.

In order to avoid a collision with a fast running car in turning a beach corner, Mrs. J. S. Barbe was obliged to turn her car out of the road and run it into one of the light posts, breaking the globe. But little damage was done, but there was danger of a serious accident because the speed limit was ignored by the approaching car.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Asher of New York have returned to Daytona from a trip to Havana, and are spending a short time here before their return to the north. Mr. Asher expects to leave his beautiful yacht in Daytona this summer, for their return here to occupy the Faith Hall Villa which they purchased the past season.

THE CAMPAIGN ENDS AT EIGHT O'CLOCK TONIGHT

READ THESE INSTRUCTIONS CAREFULLY

Following is a list of the club members that are still in the race for the prize automobiles and other valuable awards:

Miss Susie McFarland, Titusville...??
Miss Guida Fuquay, City...??
Miss Ruby Holland, D. Beach...??
Miss Thelma Alderman, City...??
Miss Olive Hinsky, City...??
Miss Lila Sims, City...??
Mrs. Harold C. Rose, D. Beach...??
Mrs. J. W. Hippard, D. Beach...??
Miss Hazel Hankins, City...??
Mrs. Harriet M. Graham, City...??
Miss Marjorie Vain, City...??
Mrs. A. H. Hewitt, City...??
Miss Mabel Ellsworth, Ormond...??

The end of the last week is drawing near. Only two short days remain before the greatest Salesmanship Club Campaign ever conducted in Daytona and vicinity will close, and the last week is finding all of the remaining club members hard at work trying to get their last few votes.

Riding on the crest of this wave of enthusiasm are ambitious candidates from every section of the territory entering vigorous efforts to capture the prizes that will be awarded in a few days hence. In both the city and the out-of-town section is gathering a storm of votes that will be powered upon the campaign office at the final moment.

The race is too close to bank upon any possibilities, and there are too many persons interested in every candidate to insure anyone else an easy victory. Over-confidence loses many battles. Relaxation at this stage of the game is suicidal to success. Determination to win, coupled with relentless activity in vote gathering, will make a winner out of any candidate. This eleven-hour chance to make a whirlwind dash to the finish—chance to get your share of the $3,500 worth of handsome prizes.

Present indications point to a hair-brained finish, and it is certain that the prize will be won by the candidate that most deserves them. No one candidate can appear certain of victory and there is abundant speculation as to the final outcome. This last week will count—make it count for you. It seems to be unanimous that the campaign that is characteristic of the candidates, and the final few days will undoubtedly witness the most spirited battle that has ever taken place.

CLOSING RULES—IMPORTANT
Each club member is asked by the campaign manager to fully acquaint herself with the following rules. If there is any question about any part of them, call up at once so that we may make it clear to you. For after the campaign closes there will be no excuses allowed—you must get things correct.

1. The campaign will close right on the minute of 8:00 p. m. on Saturday night, March 26th.

2. All subscriptions must be in the ballot box by that time in order to be counted. Remember that it is 8:00 p. m., and not a few minutes after 8:00, for that would be too late.

3. In making your report to the ballot box, each club member must see that her report checks up evenly. She must carefully check over each subscription and see that the money to cover is in the envelope. DO NOT MAKE A MISTAKE.

4. In the envelope goes just two things, subscription stubs (the same as you have been turning in to the campaign office heretofore) and money to cover the subscriptions. Each club member before she comes to the office to drop her envelope into the box must check everything up and place it in the envelope and seal it and then write her name on the outside, and some time before 8:00 o'clock she must drop this into the ballot box.

5. In checking up your report be very careful that you do not make a mistake, for subscriptions without the money to cover will not be counted and money without the subscriptions will not be counted. If you have made a mistake, there is no chance in the world of getting it corrected, for after the campaign closes no mistakes will be corrected. Make sure everything is right before the campaign closes.

6. Place NO CHECKS in the ballot box. Nothing but CASH MONEY will be counted by the judges. Remember, no checks—all cash money.

7. At the stroke of 8:00, the chairman of the judges' committee will announce the campaign officially closed and from then on it will be impossible to place another envelope into the box—get yours in before the close.

8. Remember that the report that you make Saturday night is just like the one that you have made previous to this time, the only difference is that you put it into an envelope rather than give it to the campaign manager.

9. Don't forget the closing hour—8:00 p. m.—not a few minutes after, but before that time is the time to make your report. And be careful to check everything up correctly—for mistakes will not be corrected after the close.

Plunging along through the final hours in a furious battle for supremacy while the time is ticking off precious seconds, candidates in The News' $3,500 Salesmanship Club Voting Campaign will tomorrow night wind up the most stupendous newspaper campaign ever before seen in these parts. The swell is coming! Like a mighty ocean wave that one may experience any day on our wonderful beach, that laughs at all obstacles, and sweeps everything before it, voting is assuming almost unbelievable proportions. Even the wildest predictions as to the ultimate winners have been shattered by the avalanche of subscriptions that is descending upon the campaign office. Like waves of the charging regiment—on they come, never ceasing, never faltering.

All previous records for subscriptions has been shattered. A new mark has been set, and the indications are that it will be broken tomorrow. There is every indication that the finish will be more than close. Just a few votes may separate the winners of the automobiles from the other share gainers. Who the prize winners are to be and just what their allotment will be, no one can tell. Several candidates from whom much has been expected have apparently faltered while others have forged to the front. Tomorrow may win you a motor car!

See to it that you get all your votes in before the clock strikes eight tomorrow night. You may need every one.

News' Famous Automobile Campaign Ends Promptly at Eight o'Clock Tonight

With the final hour 8:00 p. m. Saturday night emblazoned firmly on the minds of all, the candidates in the News' famous campaign are enacting thrilling scenes in their struggle for additional votes to help them to secure a place in the distribution of the $3,500 worth of prizes Saturday night. Swiftly drawing to a close the campaign is hourly growing in force and vigor, sending a mighty wave of enthusiasm over the territory where we are operating. Candidates are fully aroused to the opportunity of winning one of the handsome cars. Every passerby is approached by the question, "Will you subscribe to the Daily News and help me win one of the prizes?" Every passing hour is installing new vigor and enthusiasm into the tireless workers.

All the territory is a vivid picture of mighty struggle tempered with enthusiasm bordering on frenzy. The outcome is unpenetrable. And as to the candidates, who will they be that will stand serene and ultimate at the summit of achievement on the pinnacle their ambition has placed them? No one can tell. Such a capacity as has already been displayed will undoubtedly measure up to this demand with superb adequacy, but nothing will atone for time that has passed unheeded; visions of the future will involve into realities of the present, but only for those who consider nothing too difficult to overcome. The road to victory may be strewn with barriers, but those who go steadily onward with the vim and determination will be the ones that will reap the harvest.

From today on ambition will reach its highest pitch, and the battle will be waged relentlessly until the hands of the clock point to the closing hour. Who will be the winners can only be told after the final ballots have been cast and the official judges read off the names of those who have worked the hardest and won.

Overconfidence at this stage of the race will only lose what earnest effort has gained for you during the past weeks—don't underestimate the ability of your opponents, for they may have worked as hard as you and possibly have done as well. With no extra votes are to be given, each subscription counts so many votes, and although the amount is rather small in comparison with what has been offered they still count toward the winning of either of the cars—your best in these last few hours—make every minute count in your behalf—don't fall down now.

Port Orange Votes Against Bonds for School Building

The property owners in the Port Orange school district voted 43 to 34 against bonding the district for $35,000 to provide a new school building for that town, on Friday.
The vote against the proposition was taken, it was said, because Port Orange is heavily indebted for many town improvements, the tax payers feeling that the present was not the time for adding to the indebtedness for the school building.

Maule's Rock Is Hard and Tough

"Test It With a Hammer"

A Conclusive Argument Against Soft Rock and Surplus Fine Material

Highway Engineers universally agree on the following specifications of rock for highway purposes. (Copied from "Manual of Highway Construction.")

"Broken stone for road work should have the qualities of HARDNESS, TOUGHNESS and freedom from lamination or cleavage planes. According as it excels in these qualities, it is valuable. The cementing quality, or that property which will make the particles bind together when rolled, is also of considerable value, but THIS PROPERTY IS DUE TO THE QUALITY OF THE STONE, WHICH IS DIRECTLY OPPOSED TO HARDNESS.

"A GOOD QUALITY OF STONE will furnish about 75 per cent of its product larger than 3/4 inch in size, and the remainder in screenings and dust."

CHALK has greater cementing qualities than any rock, but will not build a highway.

MAULE'S OJUS ROCK IS HARD AND TOUGH, and more than 75 per cent of our quarry run and crusher run rock is 3/4 inch and larger in size.

THE TRUE TEST of a paving material is the life of the pavement of which it is built.

Practically all the best roads and streets on the East Coast are built of MAULE'S OJUS ROCK. NONE HAVE WORN OUT.

GOVERNMENT TEST at the Watertown Arsenal of concrete, made of MAULE'S OJUS ROCK, 1-2-4 mixture, 28 days, 2,740 pounds per square inch.

Rock from the Falford quarry is being called "Ojus Rock," which is not fair, as the Falford rock is so soft that it is dug without drilling and blasting and is much softer than the rock so well known on the East Coast as OJUS ROCK.

For prices on rock, paving and piling, address

The Maule Ojus Rock Company
Evert P. Maule, President

OJUS, - - - - FLORIDA

NOTE—DADE COUNTY is now surfacing its roads with MAULE'S OJUS ROCK, because the built bit rock will not stand heavy traffic.

PRINCESS ISSENA

As the season of 1920-21 is drawing to a close, business people of Triples Cities will be comparing this with former seasons to note whether or not it has come up to the average in social and commercial ways.

Manager Henry Haynes of the Princess Issena speaks with authority for he has been connected with the business life of the three cities for the past dozen years, three years as clerk of the Princess Issena and the last nine years as the proprietor, in response to inquiries by a representative of the News, Mr. Haynes said:

"This has surpassed any former season in the Princess Issena for the numbers of people entertained and the volume of business transacted. The house has been filled to capacity since early in the year and it is still filled. The Princess will remain open for guests old and new until the first day of May. Even though there should be no guests the doors of the hotel will be open to receive any desiring to come here."

That the Princess Issena is one of the most popular hotels in Florida is admitted by all. Regarding this Mr. Haynes said:

"It is always my desire to have people take with them when they leave Seabreeze only the pleasantest memories of the Princess. Even though they may not come again for a dozen years, whenever they do come I want their recollections of this stay beneath my roof to be of such a pleasant nature that they will instinctively think of the Princess Issena when they think of coming to Florida for a winter season."

Although Mr. Haynes was too modest to make any mention of it, it has long been a conceded fact that nowhere in Florida can the traveler find better cuisine than at his hotel. He spares neither time or expense to make the menus of his dining room varied and of the very best qualities of food.

Mr. Haynes was asked what in his opinion was most needed to make the Triples Cities all that they should be as tourist towns of the very best kind, he said:

"First of all I should say that Seabreeze should have a swimming and bathing pool of salt water. Of course there are a few people who go in the surf every day throughout the winter, but I doubt if anyone can really enjoy it. The water is too cold in mid-winter and no one likes to do the thing he does not enjoy. Even if people did enjoy the surf bathing all winter, no one can enjoy swimming in the surf and there are always more or less people here both winter and spring who do not go in the surf and many would enjoy a swimming pool such as I have in mind. It should be open to the south and west and open up so that the water would be sufficiently warm all winter for people to delight in bathing and swimming there. Swimming is a fine exercise and there are always many who like it better than any other kind of sport and there are always others who are anxious to learn to swim and this cannot be very easily accomplished in the breakers. I would like to see two of these pools, a small one for the little folks and a larger one for the grown-ups."

"Another thing that I would like to see is a free bridge. There is always a good deal of complaint made regarding the toll bridges and tourists coming here seem to forget that in many places in New York and Pennsylvania there are yet toll bridges, but anyway, the people want and should have a free bridge."

"Seabreeze has the reputation of being and she is, a law abiding community. People coming here expect to find a community of law and order and a general atmosphere of refinement. They have a right to expect this."

"I think the Triples Cities are growing and that they are coming on in fine shape. To my mind there is no question about the future of the places."

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Lettingwell of Watkins, N. Y., are guests at the Princess. Mr. Lettingwell is the proprietor of the Glen Springs Sanitarium, which is one of the best known institutions of the kind in the state of New York. Watkins, Glen is one of the beautiful spots of the world and by many travelers is considered superior to Niagara Falls as a place of natural beauty. It is visited by many thousands of tourists every year.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Beachy of Chicago are at the Princess Issena for the first time in six years. They have been spending the past winters in California, but when they were here six years ago they were guests at the Princess and express great satisfaction in again being there.

V. L. Douglas, one of the most distinguished business men of America, with Mrs. Douglas, will arrive on the 26th in Seabreeze and will be guests at the Princess Issena. For a generation Mr. Douglas has been one of the biggest advertisers in America and the Douglas shoe is known throughout the world as a result. Every man, woman and child in the country is familiar with his face as it has appeared in papers and magazines and during the passing of years the pictured face has not changed. Mr. Douglas' home is in Brookline, Mass., and his business office in Boston, Mass. He has many times been honored by his fellow citizens. He has been elected to the house of representatives and to the senate of his state; has served as mayor of Boston and as governor of Massachusetts. In politics he is a Democrat and has many times represented his party at the national conventions. Mr. Douglas belongs to the school of business men that is fast disappearing, the kind that have fought their way to success and recognition. He was five years old when his father died and when he was seven he went to work for an uncle who set him to peeling shoes and from this humble beginning he worked his way up until he controlled a business with a capacity of 17,000 pairs of shoes daily and until he owns a hundred and six retail shoe stores in various cities of the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Bedford and P. A. Richards of Carlisle, Pa., are at the Princess Issena for the second time this season. They have been in St. Petersburg and other cities of the west coast.

Among the new arrivals at the Princess Issena are: J. A. Jones, of Rochester, N. Y.; J. L. Cloud and L. F. Goodspeed, of Kalamazoo, Mich.; Dr. and Mrs. G. M. Cady, of Owego, N. Y.; Harold P. Peachy and Miss Mary Vette, of Chicago; Mrs. J. C. Ralston, Spokane, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Kirby and Mrs. P. M. Chase, of Wilkes Barre, Pa.

"Everybody should hear the Easter sermon at the First Baptist church, 'The Two Resurrections in Which All Men Are Concerned.'" 7:34-3:26-11.

RIDGEWOOD HOTEL

When Easter Comes

Let people unto people
Proclaim the joy abroad.
Our Christ has died and risen.
The Passover of God.

Lord shrive our hearts from evil
And give our spirits sight
That we may hail with gladness
The Resurrection light.

—Y. C.
